What does the Work Advice Centre offer?

You are an agency worker or always get temporary work contracts? Maybe you are from abroad and don't know your rights in the German employment market? If you feel that there is something not right about your work you can contact us.

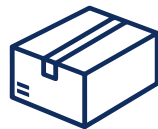

We are the Beratungsstelle Arbeit (Work Advice Centre) in Düsseldorf and we offer help for those being exploited at work and people in a difficult work situation.

Does this include me?

- You don't have a work contract?
- You don't receive a pay slip?
- You are not always paid for all the hours you work?
- Your employer does not care about your safety?
- You don't get breaks or holiday?
- You are working below the minimum wage ?
- You don't get paid if you're sick?

If you have ticked one or more boxes something is wrong. Call us on 0160 8256753.

How can the Beratungsstelle Arbeit help me?

- › We inform you about labour law and health and safety at work.
- › We help you if you are having serious problems with your employer.
- › We can put you in contact with other advice centres or specialised lawyers.
- › We help you to clarify the financial situation for you and your family.
- › We support you in applying for additional help.
- › If necessary, the consultation will take place with the help of an interpreter.
